Press:

"The extremely voluminous Isolde by Heide Melton and the expressive, height-proof Tristan by Erin Caves complement each other brilliantly...The hurricane of the premier audience's applause for this couple was justified... Each note was sung beautifully in the best articulation, not declaimed. In vocal consistency, the predestined singer explored his part nuanced in colorful individuality."

"When Erin Caves gives Tristan his brilliant roll finish, his top is phenomenally radiant, bright and clear, his diction immaculate."

"Erin Caves trifft jeden Ton mit imponierender Sicherheit und führt das Ensemble an ..."

"Erin Caves leidet als Tristan konditionsstark, mit gedämpft ausdrucksvollem Wagner-Tenor - ein bemerkenswertes Debüt."
